The vault of the State Bank of Myrtle Point was blown open some time between Saturday night and Sunday morning and $12,000 in gold and currency taken. The robbers gained entrance to the bank by cutting away the flooring of an office above, and drilling a hole into the vault from the top and putting in dynamite to blow the safe open. No clue was left behind.

The City Federation of Clubs.

The City Federation of Clubs met in the library rooms Tuesday afternoon. A report of the executive meeting of the District Federation of Women's Clubs was given by Mrs. Gard, in which was stated that the first work of the ladies will be planting flowers and shrubs along the public highways. This work is being done by the women of California, so that in the year of 1915 it will truly be along a land of flowers.

The district officers consist of the following ladies:

President—Mrs. W. G. Davidson, Medford.

First Vice-President—Mrs. E. C. Gard, Ashland.

Second Vice-President—Mrs. Z. A. Clement, Grants Pass.

Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. Bert Harmon, Medford.

Recording Secretary—Mrs. McKiffe, Grants Pass.

Treasurer—Mrs. C. H. Vaupel, Ashland.

Auditor—Mrs. Dr. Maltgreen, Phoenix.

District Organizer—Mrs. A. H. Bird, Medford.

Mr. J. B. Ware gave an address on "Commission Form of Government," giving a history of the rise of the movement, which was given birth by the needs of Galveston after the flood. Tracing this form of executive power step by step as it was taken up in other cities and how beneficial the plan had worked, convincing his hearers that commission form of government will soon replace our old form of mayor and council.

Mr. Greer then talked on "Greater Ashland." He demonstrated beyond a doubt that Ashland has a great future in store if we develop our natural resources, and the ladies were unanimous in opinion that if the people stand back of the mineral water proposition "Greater Ashland" will be no pipe dream.

The ladies were entertained by piano solos by Mrs. Cunningham and violin solos by Master Davis, which all enjoyed.

During the social hour refreshments were served by East Side Parent-Teachers, and those in attendance returned to their homes all wishing that many more of their club ladies had been present.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy—The Mothers' Favorite.
